

InWaiting terms and conditions for waiting sites

1. All companies agreeing to receive and display InWaiting magazines, materials and samples and known in this document as Waiting Sites.
2. By agreeing to receive InWaiting magazines, materials and product samples, waiting sites are agreeing to display magazines, materials and samples clearly as specified by InWaiting for customers to read/try for at least one month from delivery.
3. During this period, the magazines, materials and samples remain the property of InWaiting.
4. After one month the magazines, including the plastic covers, become the property of the Waiting Site.
5. Product samples supplied by InWaiting cannot be used by Waiting Site staff unless offered by InWaiting.
6. InWaiting magazines must remain in the plastic covers at all times during the display period. Sponsors' materials must not be removed from the magazines unless requested by InWaiting.
7. Lost, stolen or damaged magazines or materials must be reported to InWaiting within 24 hours so they can be replaced. Waiting sites are not liable for any fees associated with this loss.
8. The InWaiting service is free to waiting sites approved by InWaiting. Waiting sites are entitled to cancel this service at any time without cost.
9. InWaiting is entitled to withdraw this service at its discretion.
10. To be eligible for the InWaiting service Waiting Sites must not display other magazines with plastic covers displaying promotional material while InWaiting magazines are on display.